THE RAILROAD.

For fifteen or twenty years a railroad through Pennsvalley has been more or less agitated. Each successive year brought with it new hopes, new projects, new meetings and a few new friends of the enterprise. Sometimes the zealous friends of the road such as David Duncan Esq., Dr. Coburn and others whom we might name, having unlimited faith in the practicability of the route, and feeling confident of obtaining the assistance and co-operation of the wealthy and intelligent farmers of Pennsvalley, would feel that they were almost ready to grasp the golden prize, and witness the completion of a great through route East and West, which would make their lovely valley worth millions instead of thousands of dollars. But they died without the realization of their hopes in regard to this magnificent project. They died beloved, honored and esteemed by all who knew them. Died, did we say? Yes, all that was mortal of them died; but their memories, will never die. Long as Pennsvalley endures, just so long will the names of these noble and indefatigable workers, be remembered by the people of that valley, as well as by the people of the entire county. For their's was a work of self sacrifice for the benefit of the whole county, for future generations, for all time.

About two years ago the question of the completion of the L. C. & S. C. R. R., was again agitated by the descendents and neighbors of the men above referred to. The offer made to the friends of this road by the Pa. Central R. R. Co., is well known to our readers. We need not repeat it here. Suffice it to say, that the offer was accepted and a series of meetings were held all along the route for the purpose of raising the required sum of money, and to secure the right of way. Some of the meetings were well attended and a great many of the farmers of Pennsvalley took hold of the work in good earnest and subscribed their money liberally. Slowly, but surely, the work progressed, until we were enabled last week to write, that "the railroad from Bellefonte to Lewisburg is now numbered among the certainties."

And now we are prepared to state, that the engineer corps are expected here this week for the purpose of locating the route from this place to Lemont where we understand the B. & S. S. R. R., will intersect the L. C. & S. C. R. R. As we understand it, the money to grade both roads has all been subscribed and the proper guarantees given. If this be true, the letting will take place, as soon as the engineers finish the work of locating the route. Then commences, fellow citizens, a glorious era for Pennsvalley, for Bellefonte, for Centre county. We know it is admitted by all that it will benefit Pennsvalley. All agree that it will enhance the value of real estate in that lovely valley from 30 per cent. to 100 per cent. Farms within ten miles of the road which are now valued at from $60 to $80 per acre, will when the road is completed be worth from $80 to $110 per acre, while much of the land in close proximity to the road will be more than trebled in value. We have no hesitancy in saying that some land in Pennsvalley will be sold at from $500 to $1000 per acre, that would not now bring $120. We have not space to enlarge upon this subject, but will for the present, refer our readers to what the building of the Pensylvania railroad has done for Philadelphia for the Juniata valley, for the whole State. And to come a little nearer home we would refer you to what the Bald Eagle valley railroad has done for that valley. Look at Milesburg and Central city, Unionville, Julian, Martha, Howard, Eagleville, Beech Creek, how they have been benefited and how they have enlarged their borders. Think how the value of real estate in that valley has been enhanced. What that road has done for Bald Eagle Valley, the completion of the L. C. & S. C. R. R. will do for Pennsvalley, and one hundred fold more, because the land is more fertile and the valley richer.

We will have more to say next week, when we will endeavor to show how this road will benefit Bellefonte and the county at large.

THE FORTY FIRST CONGRESS.

The 41st Congress closed its labors on the 4th of March, Meridian. Its record is made up. The editor of the Utica Herald who was in Washington, speaks of it as follows:

It has been called to decide upon important questions, and has pronounced upon statutes affecting forty millions of people. As in every legislative body, hosts of propositions have been introduced which have fallen dead as the leaves of autumn. Individuals have indulged occasionally in utterances the reverse of wise; for it is not given to all men to possess sagacity at all times. But the place of this Congress in history is to be determined by what it has done, and what it has refused to do; by the general character of its deliberations and by the sum of its legislation.

The Forty-first Congress began its existence with the administration of Gen. Grant. It has sustained that administration in reducing the national debt over $217,000,000, and it has at the same time canceled $80,000,000 of annual taxation. These facts are notorious; but light and air are familiar too. And these financial achievements are the light and air essential to national vigor and enlarged prosperity. Because we enjoy them we do not appreciate them. If we were deprived of them, the country could test their value. It has required courage to maintain the policy of payment, and thus to advance the national credit. Faith in the resources of our people, was essential to the abolition of so large a proportion of taxes. The combined qualities of faith and courage have enabled this Congress to bear the burdens and to endure the clamor to go forward with a financial policy which has accomplished results that two years ago the most sanguine prophet would not have dared to predict Prudence, not recklessness; foresight, not weak submission to present ease; have controlled. That body which has canceled forever $80,000,000 of annual taxation, can not be blamed because it has not gone further in that direction; and in contributing to the payment of two hundred millions of the public debt, it has entitled itself to the perpetual gratitude of every citizen.

From every quarter come local appeals to the national government for relief and bounty. It is the prerogative of every American to ask for legislative favors. Enterprise turns instinctively to government for aid. The demands of the future; the extension of commerce; the march of our people westward; are urged with the eloquence of profound conviction in favor of subsidies and land grants. But the time has passed, when to ask was to get. Constituents "know not what's resisted." They do not hear the argument of alleged necessity; they do not see the dazzling pictures of public advantage presented in behalf of the schemes for which help is invoked. Therefore it is difficult to concede to this Congress the full credit which belongs to it, for the record which it has made in this regard.

Two new railroads to the Pacific have been authorized; the Northern and the Southern. It indicates the stiffening of legislative vertebræ, that the Southern Pacific road receives only the right of way and lands adjacent, without money or bonds. The whole brood of schemes, for railroads of less national importance, has fallen to the ground. No money subsidy has been made to steamship or telegraph. Upon the appropriations great vigilance has been exercised; and economy has prevailed. While the nation is growing; while in social life expenditure is increasing, and the continent expanding, so that new territories and new States arise to call for care and attention, it is not easy to refuse the demands for increased appropriation. But only in pensions and in extending facilities to those who served in the armies, to acquire homesteads from our western domain, has Congress exhibited profuse generosity. Retrenchment and economy have been enforced with a success deserving of especial recognition.

This has been rendered difficult by the policy of the extreme democrats. They are already at work to pour the public treasure into the laps of the southern rebels. The other day an attempt was made to make no distinction between the claims for war damages of loyal citizens in any State; and Mr. Casserly, a moderate democrat, as things go, wanted a pardon to give every one the status of loyalty. Upon this basis, we would be paying the worst rebels, if Andrew Johnson had smiled upon them, for the consequences of their crimes. But Mr. Casserly failed in his amendment, while Senator Conkling adroitly confined the benefits of the bill, to "those who had never voluntarily given aid and comfort to the rebellion." Such demonstrations as that of Mr. Casserly are frequent from the democratic side: and prove that if the country is not ready to accept and satisfy the burdens of the rebellion as borne by the southern States; if we do not want to pay the rebels for their rebellion, the republican party must be kept in power. The Forty-first Congress has gone far enough in liberality toward those who assailed the republic; and it has been sturdy in its resistance to the assaults from like quarters upon the treasury, and upon the honest tax-payers throughout the land.

In reconstruction this Congress has not erred on the side of undue severity. Every State is represented, and nearly every seat is full. Not the old admirers of slavery, not those who fought against the flag, have cause to complain. Loyal men have suffered, and their cry comes up, not for vengeance, but for aid. But the fault does not rest with Congress, if mercy and generosity will not pacify the South. Citizens must be protected; liberty will be maintained; and if more stringent measures are demanded, it can not be pleaded that the soft words and the kindly hand have not first been tried.

So the Forty-first Congress completes its labors; and it has established its claim to approval by what it has done and what it has refused to do; by its attempts to restore good feeling in all parts of our land; by its adherence to the plain virtues of economy and retrenchment; of debt-paying and tax reduction. For these things the country owes to it, and on its account to the republican party a great and lasting debt.

SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.

The Republican Senatorial Conferees, representiug the Senatorial district, composed of the counties of Blair, Huntingdon, Centre, Mifflin, Juniata and Perry, met at the Jackson House in Huntingdon, March 7th A. D., 1871, at two o'clock, p. m,

The Conference then proceeded to vote for two Senatorial delegates.

The following named gentlemen were put in nomination, viz: D. F. Caldwell, of Blair county, Dr. Sidney Thompson, of Huntingdon county, Kirk Haines of Perry county and D. W. Woods, of Mifflin county. On the 43rd ballot, D. W. Woods was elected as one of the Senatorial delegates, and on the 51st ballot Kirk Haines was elected as the other Senatorial delegate.

A Philadelphia paper professes to have special information that the introduction of coolies into the Pennsylvania coal regions is about to become a fact, and asserts that the contract has been signed for the importation of a number of coolies to work a Schuylkill colliery, and that the first batch will arrive about the first of May.

NEWS FROM OTHER COUNTIES.

MIFFLIN COUNTY.

The True Democrat says that on, Friday night last, whilst Mrs. Witman, of this place, was seated at her table engaged in sewing, the chimney of the lamp she was using suddenly cracked and fell, which startled her, and throwing up her arm, she knocked the lamp over. The oil instantly flowed over the table and upon the floor, catching fire at both places. On the table the oil saturated several new sheets, and the fire burnt large holes in the centre of each. On the floor the carpet caught and Mrs. W. endeavored to smother the flames with other pieces of carpet, but failed. In the meantime her daughter, Mollie, brought a crock full of water, and in the excitement threw crock and all upon the floor, the crock striking the mother on the head, producing quite an ugly bruise. Next a bucket of water was brought, which, finally quenched the fire. ....The Editor of the Democrat will never get done blowing about his new power press. He talks much about printing Posters &c., but if the people of Mifflin will consult their own interest they will come to the Bellefont Republican office for their job work. We print the best, the nicest and cheapest. .....Two men at work on the grading of the Sunbury and Lewistown R. R., near Lillyville, were well nigh crushed to death by the caving-in of an embankment. One named Clinger, had his legs badly bruised, whilst the other named Sipe, although thoroughly covered up for a time, escaped with only slight injuries. The accident occurred last Thursday.

.....They are having some trouble in Lewistown over the terminus of the Sunbury and Lewistown Railroad. We suppose Gen. James Burns will have it just where he wants it.

.....The Gazette says that fresh fish, such as pike and perch are selling at 16 to 17 cents per pound. We can buy them for 15 cts., per lb, here.....The Roman Catholics of this place are making collections with a view of building a new church. The citizens are generally contributing .....Sucker fishing is again on the tapis, but thus far has not proved as successful as last year. A line baited with a glass of whisky would probably hook one at each throw..... Sinners in town and county have fair play this week—all the Methodist preachers having gone to Conference, which meets at Carlisle, Pa., the Lutheran divines also to a Conference in Foutz's Valley, Perry county, and Rev. Dr. McClean on a visit to Philadelphia..... The number of taxable inhabitants in Mifflin Co. is 4,216. Deaf and dumb persons 10, Blind 11.

HUNTINGDON COUNTY.

The Globe of the 7th inst., says "that on Thursday afternoon last, on the occasion of the funeral of Gen. A. P. Wilson of this place, a number of persons congregated on the bridge near the residence to await the conclusion of the ceremonies. A number were seated upon one of the rails, which suddenly gave way, precipitating some into the race, giving them a cold bath, while Mr. Ashman Miller fell backwards and struck against a stone, inflicting a deep and ugly gash in his head, and hurting his side. We are glad to note, however, that he is now able to attend to business as usual. In this connection we would add our denunciation of the practice of keeping people waiting at funerals while the ceremony is taking place at the house. To avoid this in the future, and to have some regard for the health of sympathizing friends, we would suggest that a certain hour be stated for the ceremoney, and another for the time of the funeral to start to the cemetery." The Globe's suggestions are good, and we call the attention of our people to them. We think a funeral is a poor place, not the proper place at least, for a minister to show off his elocutionery powers. Short and to the point, is much better than these long winded herangues.....The Journal says that a little son, aged about four years, of Luden Long, living in Charleston, in the out-skirts of Huntingdon, on Wednesday of last week, fell off of a fence and severely cut his forehead, laying the skull bare for an inch or more. The Doctor was called in, dressed the wound, and at the latest accounts he was doing very well.....The Riddlesburg Furnace people put their second stack in blast on Sunday last.—The furnace has been yielding splendidly for some time—averaging about thirty tons a day.....By a late ordinance of the Town Council, every person is compelled to number his residence within sixty days. Why can we not have such an ordinance in Bellefonte.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY.

The Journal says; that Rev. A. B. Hoover, at Pennfield, was favored with a "surprise" donation recently, which netted $107, in cash. Messrs. Hiram Woodward and Charles Robacker, with their families, and the workmen in their employ, inaugurated the movement. The occasion was one of great pleasure to all the participants.....On Sunday night last, several persons entered the saloon of Mr. McPherson, in this place, while he and family were at church. They were quite civil, however, considering all things. The 'damage' sustained was the piecing of Mr. M.'s furniture..... The latter part of last week, the sun shone warm and pleasant, and in consequence, the snow melted to such an extent as to raise the water in the river to a good rafting stage. This at once created a stir among our lumbermen, and soon all hands were busy rafting-in. On Sunday and Monday several rafts left here for the lower markets. The cold atmosphere and a light sprinkle of snow, on Monday, somewhat retarded operations, but the warm sunshine on Tuesday was the signal to resume work, and rafting-in has continued quite brisk up to this time. In a few days many will be on their way down the river. We hope all may safely reach their destination .....The Republican says:—We understand that the Senate has so amended the bill relating to the erection of Water Works in our borough as to have the question submitted to a vote of the taxpayers before proceeding to their erection. This is certainly democratic enough to satisfy the most pugnacious.' If this bill should carry and Clearfield succeeds in erecting water works, the Editor of the "Republican will drink more water than is his custom now. If so we look for more news in his local columns.

BLAIR COUNTY.

The "Radical" says: We understand the Vigilant fire company are about establishing a library in their new building in this city. This is a commendable movement and ought receive the cordial co-operation of our people....The Somerset "Herald" talks about high rents in that place, and instances store rooms renting for $120 and $200 per annum. We call anything under $500, cheap. Wait, Mr. "Herald," till your railroads are finished and your wealth becomes developed, and you will get no store rooms at $200....The Tyrone "Herald" says: The Council at its last session passed a resolution to grade and widen Washington avenue. Also, a resolution providing for replacing the foot bridge across Bald Eagle creek, opposite the brewery—the bridge at that point having floated away during the last flood. ....Brainerd also says, that "Ray's enterprising Tannery" will receive an addition next week, in the shape of a 48x 32 feet Latch House. Mr. Ray may, indeed, be a very enterprising man, but confess we never heard before, of an "Enterprising Tannery"....Rev. Thos. Barnhart, of the Tyrone M. E. Church, received a wonderful surprise, on Monday evening last, at the hands of his "constituents," a large number of whom invaded his house, while he was surreptiously inveigled away, and when summoned home, received a welcoming speech from C. Guyer, Esq., appropriate and eloquent; received the substantial regards of his admirers to the extent of $176,00; an elegant piece of dry goods from Jacob Burley, Esq., received a "heap" of other good substantials, and leaving his money at home, departed for Conference on Tuesday....These are the only Blair county items we could find in the "Herald." Why do you not get up a good local Brainerd?

The reunited Presbyterian Church is laboring with renewed zeal for the spread of the Gospel. The Presbyterian Memorial Fund has already received contributions to the extent of about four million dollars. Nearly one million of this has been expended for educational institutions, including missionary schools abroad. Another million has been devoted to the building of churches. The paying of old church debts has consumed about a million, and another million has been used for parsonages, church repairs and enlargements, hospitals, and publication-houses. The secretary of the committee states that in all these departments only a beginning has been made; that hundreds of church societies are without houses of worship, and that colleges and seminaries need at once five-fold more.

A Richmond woman, correspondent of a Virginia paper, says she interviewed Governor Walker the other day to ascertain his position on a railroad question, and that he asked, before committing himself, what her own predictions were, and when she said that she was on the fence, he graciously said: "Then Madam, I wish no more agreeable position than to be sitting by you side."

HONOR TO GEN. CAMERON.

The Harrisburg Telegraph, in speaking of the change of the chairmanship of the Committee on Foreign Relations, says that the committee appointed by the caucus of Republican United States Senators to revise the standing committees of the Senate, have placed Senator Cameron at the head of the Committee on Foreign Relations, the position so long held by Mr. Sumner. A more distinguished honor, short of the Presidential office, could not be conferred upon him. His selection for this important Chairmanship shows the full confidence which the Senate repose in the ability, integrity and working capacity of the distinguished Senator; and should he agree to accept the high and honorable trust to which he is invited, the Senate and the country will discover that that confidence has not been misplaced. We doubt, however, whether General Cameron will, at his advanced age (though he is still comparatively vigorous), accept the responsibility of the position, with the strain upon physical endurance which its arduous duties impose. It was at one time thought that no change in the chairmanship could be made; that it would be impossible to displace Mr. Sumner from a position which he had so long and so ably filled. But circumstances seemed to make it necessary that a Chairman more in accord with the views of the Executive on questions of foreign policy should be chosen; and after a protracted and animated debate in caucus, the action of the Committee was confirmed by a vote of 23 to 21. Mr. Cameron left this city this morning in the early train for Washington, and we shall soon know whether he accepts or declines.

For Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption, in its early stages, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. It is also a great blood purifier and strength restorer or tonic, and for "Liver Complaint" and Costive Conditions of the Bowels it has no equal. All Scrofulous and skin diseases as Pimples, Blotches, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas and Eruptions, yield to its wonderful properties. Sold by druggists.

THE LOVERS.

IN DIFFERENT WORDS AND TENSES.

Sally Salter, she was a young teacher, who taught,
And her friend, Charley Church, was a preacher who praught!
Though his enemies called him a screecher, who scraught.

His heart when he saw her kept sinking, and sunk,
And his eyes meeting hers, began winking, and wunk.
While she, in her turn, fell to thinking, and thunk

He hastened to woo her, and sweetly he wooed,
For his love grew until to a mountain it grewed,
And what he was longing to do, he doed.

In secret he wanted to speak, and he spoke,
To seek with his lips what his heart long had soke
So he managed to let the truth leak, and it loke.

He asked her to ride to the church, and she rode,
They so sweetly did glide that they both tho't they glode,
And they came to the place to be tied, and were tode.

Then homeward, he said, let us drive and they drove,
And soon as they wished to arrive, they arrove;
For whatever he couldn't contrive, she controve,

The kiss he was dying to steal, then he stole,
At the feet where he wanted to kneel, then he knole,
And he said "I feel better than ever I fole."

So they to each other kept clinging and clang,
While time his swift circuit was wining, and wung,
And this was the thing he was bringing, and brung.

The man Sally wanted to catch, and had caught,
That she wanted from others to snatch, and had snaught,
Was the one that she now liked to scratch, and she scraught.

And Charley's warm love began freezing, and froze,
While he took to teazing, and cruelly toze
The girl he had wished to be squeezing, and squoze.

"Wretch!" he cried, when she threatened to leave him, and left,
"How could you deceive me, as you have deceft?"
And she answered, 'I promised to cleave, and I've cleft!"

Queer Epitaphs.

A carefully prepared history of epitaphs, from their earliest introduction to the present time, would be to the progress of civilization what the science of geology is to the physical development of the earth. "He lies like an epitaph" did not become an aphorism "with more truth than poetry in it" until long after the period when our sires of ancient Britain, fearless of wrong, reposed their rugged limbs in whatever place resting time found them. The epitaph was known to the classical nations of antiquity; and, indeed, by every people, a brief commemoration of the heroic actions or personal virtues of their illustrious dead has been regarded as one of the worthiest occupations of the faculties of the living. Pettigrew has translated several from Egyptian sarcophagi (Bohn's edition, page 5)' Herodotus vii., page 228) has preserved to us those which the Amphyctyons caused to be inscribed on the columns which they raised in honor of the heroes of Thermopylæ. Mr. Geo. Burgess, in 1854, gave us an interesting collection of Greek epitaphs, and Dr. Maitland, in his "church of the Catacombs," published in 1849, gives us some interesting early Christian ones. The brevity of the epitaph has made it necessarily epigrammatic, and some of the best epigrams in our language will be found in the form of epitaphs.

Nearly every poet, from Chaucer to the present time, has perpetrated epitaphs to the memory of the living and the dead. There is one class of epitaphs which belong mostly to the countries in which the Anglo-Saxon language is spoken, and has only come to the public through the "wit-and-wisdom" columns of the cheap weekly newspapers. Pettigrew, Herodotus, Burgess and Maitland give us the heroic, historic, sentimental and religious strata of this science, leaving unwritten an important and interesting development, the comic and the absurd, a few specimens of which we now give, without claiming for them either originality or novelty.

It seems as if the English speaking nations found it impossible to confine their raillery to the living, and accordingly we find the harmless peculiarities of the dead have often been set off on a tombstone with a felicity which has rendered immortal what otherwise the next generation may have forgotten. The following well known epitaph of Dr. Franklin, written by himself, will bear repetition here for its humor and quaintness:

THE BODY OF
BENJAMIN FRANKLIN,
PRINTER,

(Like the cover of an old book,
its contents torn out,
and stript of its lettering and gilding),
lies here, food for worms;
but the work shall not be lost,
for it will (as he believes) appear once more,
in a new and more elegant edition,
revised and corrected
by
THE AUTHOR.

The following inscriptions is in the churchyard of Chigwell, Essex, England:

This disease you ne'er heard tell on,
I died by eating too much melon;
Be careful, then, all you that feed—I Suffered because I was too greedy."

In the churchyard in Cheltenham, England, may be seen the following, which has appeared in the newspapers with some variations:

"Here lies I and my three daughters,
Killed by drinking of the Cheltenham waters.
If we had stuck to Epsom salts,
We'd not be lying in these here vaults."

"Sir," said Mr. Johnson, "it is a shame to speak ill of a man behind his back, but I think the gentleman who has just left the room is—an attorney!" A similar sentiment, as to the prevailing rascality of lawyers of the lower grade, is found on a gravestone in Swaffham, Norfolk, England:

"Here lieth one, believe it if you can,
Who, though an attorney, was an honest man,
The gates of Heaven shall open wide,
But will shut against all the tribe beside."

The following couplet on a miser's tomb is epigrammatic:

"Here lies old Father Gripe, who never cried 'gam satis,'
'Twould make him mad did he know you read his tombstone gratis."

This couplet, too, from Prince Edward's Island, is not without its merits, though the rhyme is far from satisfactory:

"Here lies the body of Poor Charles Lamb, Killed by a tree that fell slap-bang."

In an epitaph which we have not found in any of the collections, the composer met most ingeniously the impossibility of making the dead man's name rhyme with the cause of his death:

"Here lies Richard I Dunn,
Who was killed by a gun.
His name was Prime,
But that wouldn't rhyme."

The following quaint inscription on a noted beer drinker may be found in a churchyard in the city of Durham, England:

"Beneath these stones repose the bones
Of Theodosius Grimm;
He took his beer from year to year,
And then his bier took him."

From an old English paper we cut the following four paragraphs:

"Here lieth, wrapped in clay,
The body of William Gray;
I have no more to say."

"Here lieth the body of Thomas Smith,
And who was somewhat lavish,
He was born, bred and hanged
In this very parish."

"Here lies, cut down, like unripe fruit,
Jemima, wife of John Degroot."

"To the memory of John and Mary Meer,
A whale killed him, and she lies here."

An eccentric old man in Houghton-le-Spring, England, ordered the following inscription to be placed on his tombstone:

"Here lies the body of W. W.,
Who never more will trouble you, trouble you."

In Belfast, Ireland, may be seen the following inscription on a tombstone:

"Here lies the body of Thomas Round,
Who went to sea and never was found;
His people imagine he must have been drowned."

In Rockville, Eastern Massachusetts, the following inscription may be found:

"In memory of Jane Brent,
Who kicked up her heels and away she went."

The following lines are in a village churchyard in Georgia:

"Open your eyes,
For here lies
All that can rot,
Right where she sot,
When she was happy,
Our Eliza Jane,
Called home again,
To join her pappy.
Live so that you
And I may, too,
Join them and forever pray
Against the chills and cholera."

We are indebted to Once a Week for the following; taken from a churchyard in Sutton, Shropshire, England:

"Here lies the body of Charles Keetley, who departed this life November 4, 1857, aged 63 years.

"Here lies Mr. C. Keetley.
Now done for completely;
But before he got into this hole,
He made bad puns so neatly,
And good jokes so sweetly,
He was reckoned uncommonly droll.
We don't know if it's right,
But they say the last night
He was driving along with his fun,
And the very last word that ever was heard
Was certainly meant for a pun.
Now, o're his grave his friends may rave,
And grieve till all of them choke;
But 'twill be very queer,
If his ghost don't appear
At twelve every night for a joke."

The following spicy inscription is to be found on a tombstone at Hoosick Falls, New York:

RUTH SPRAGUE,

Died 1846, aged 9 years, 4 months and 3 days. She was stolen by Roderick R. Clow; her body was dissected at the office of Dr. P. Armstrong, Hoosick, New York, where her mutilated remains were found, and deposited here.

The body dissected by fiendish men,
Her bones anatomized;
Her soul, we trust, has risen to God,
Where few physicians rise."

As so we joke with grim death, living as if we thought "all men mortal but ourselves."—"William M. Luckey, in Apleton's Journal."

Personal Vices.

A writer in the Chicago Journal thus delicately and forcibly writes concerning those prevalent and disastrous vices which spring up from ignorance or wilful perversion of the physiological laws of the sexes. Society has too long imitated the example of the ostrich, who when danger menaces, contents herself with thrusting her stupid head under her wing.

No great moral evil was ever yet reformed by ignoring it. The blood of all the martyrs cries out against the possibility of such a thing. The innocence of the babe is beautiful—in babies; but the human being who has left the confines of babyhood, to be preserved from the knowledge of vice must be kept in a glass case; and even then the time would come when Nature herself would whisper the secret. What adult human beings need is virtue a moral strength which, knowing the existence of the evil, can yet stand firm against it. When all our youth shall be properly trained concerning those beautiful laws and provisions of nature, which relate to the tenderest and holiest ties of life, and of which the good mother herself no more makes a secret than she does of the inflation of the lungs or the circulation of the blood, the moral atmosphere will be easily purged of the miasma which has gathered in the darkness of concealment, and then, and not till then, there will be little need of even such carefully and chastely written books as "Satan in Society."

A Muscatine brewer's pet goat licked off $70 worth of revenue stamps from lager beer barrels.

A Rich Marriage Ceremony.

A number of years ago there dwelt in this village a gentleman by the name of Charles Whiting. If ever a human being was overstocked with good humor and waggishness it was that same Whiting. He was up to all sorts of innocent tricks, and his victims were numbered by the hundred, many of whom yet reside here. It came to pass that this wag was elected Justice of the Peace, and shortly after his installment in office, a couple came over from Iowa to get united in the holy bonds of "padlock." Whiting tells how he performed the ceremony, as follows:

Having been appointed to the desirable "posish" of Justice of the Peace, I was accosted, on the 5th of July, by a sleek looking young man, and in silvery tones requested me to proceed to a neighboring hotel, as he wished to enter into the holy bonds of matrimony. Here was a "squelcher." I had never done any thing of the kind, had no books nor forms; yet, I was determined to do things up strong, and in a legal manner, so I proceeded to the hotel, bearing in my arms one copy of the Revised Statutes, one ditto Webster's unabridged dictionary one copy large sized Bible, a small copy of the creed and articles of faith of the Congregational Church, one copy of Pope's Essay on man, and a sectional part of the map where the victim lived.

Having placed a table in the middle of the room, and seated myself behind it I in trumpet tones called the case. With that the young man and woman, with alacrity stepped up before me. Having sworn them on the dictionary to answer well and truly all the questions I was about to ask, I proceeded. I told the young man that, being an entire stranger I should have to ask him to give bail for the costs. Having heard this so frequently in court, I thought it indispensable. He answered that if I meant the fee for performing the ceremony, he would deposit it then and there. As I did not know exactly what I did mean, I magnanimously waived that portion of the ceremony. I then told him it would be necessary to give bail to keep the peace. This he said he was willing to do when he arrived home, and I then waived that point also.

Having established to my satisfaction that they wanted to get married, and that they were old enough to enter into that blessed state, I proceeded to tie the knot. I asked him if he was willing to take that woman to be his wife. He said he was. I told him that I did not require haste in the answer—that he might reflect a few minutes if he wished. I told him she looked like a fine girl, and I had no doubt she was; but if the sequel proved that he had been taken in, I did not want to be held responsible. I said he must love, honor, and obey her as long as she lived; he must not be "snappy" around the house, nor spit tobacco juice on the floor, all of which he promised faithfully to heed.

"Now," said I, "Georgiana, [her name was Georgiana] you hear what Humphreys says. Do you accept the invitation to become his wife? Will you be lenient toward his faults and cherish his virtues; will you never be guilty of throwing furniture at his head for slight offenses and will you get three meals a day without grumbling?" She said she would. I asked them if they believed in the commandments, and they said they did. Having read the creed and articles of faith, as aforesaid, I exclaimed: "Humphrey, take her, she is yours; I can not withhold my consent." "Georgiana, when safe in the arms of your Humphrey you can defy the scoffs and jeers of the world."

I then read a little from the Essay on man, including that passage, "Man wants but little here below, but wants that little long." As a finale to the scene, I delivered the following exordium: "Go in peace; sin no more."

The generous Humphrey having placed a fifty cent check in my unwilling palm, I bade the happy pair a final adieu.

The business of paying debts is so much of a bore to the mass of mankind, that he who offers extra inducements to debtors is entitled to a hearing. Such an one was the uncle of a New Hampshire youth, who lately repaid his uncle the sum of ten dollars borrowed some years before. So virtuous an act deserved reward, and for once received it.—For the old gentleman died the other day, and left a will bequeathing his estate, valued at two hundred thousand dollars, to his debt-paying nephew. He gave as a reason for the bequest the fact that, though many relatives had borrowed money of him, this one alone had remembered to return the loan. The moral of this is obvious, but lest some may fail to see it, we state it thus: If you owe your uncle, fork over.

A True Story About Bees.

A lady in Providence tells me that her father once brought home a molasses hogshead, to be used as a water tank. On washing day her mother said:

"Let us throw the suds into it, to soak the molasses from the bottom."

The instant she had done so, she exclaimed:

"O, I have drowned hundreds of our neighbors' bees!"

The hogshead was black with bees that were busily appropriating the sweets from what they must have considered an enormous blossom. The good lady made haste with her skimmer, to skim the bees from the top of the water, and spread them on a board in the sunshine; but they seemed drowned and nearly dead, and she was very sorry.

All the bees that were around the hogshead had flown away at the dash of the water, but in a few minutes they returned accompanied by scores of others. Then began a curious work. They immediately went to work upon the unfortunate bees, turning them over and over; and working upon them constantly with their heads, feet, and antennæ. The result of their busy labor was, that one after another gave signs of life, stretched its limbs and wings, crawled about and dried itself in the sun, and flew away. The lady said there were half a pint, at first, and there remained only about a dozen hopeless cases, beyond the humane efforts of their brothers.

No other insect has ever excited so much interest and admiration as the bee; many lessons have been learned from its wonderful and ingenious habits; and in this case I have no doubt that an observant physician might have gained some useful hints as to the resuscitation of the drowned.

A Noble Sacrifice,—"I Cannot Let My Brother Perish."

A few days ago the Syracuse, N. Y., Standard, mentioned the drowning, at Fulton, of two Merriam boys, nephews of Major Thomas Merriam. The case is a sad one indeed; but from this affliction gleams the nobleness of human nature even in childhood. The two Merriam boys—Willie, aged fourteen; Allie, aged twelve—and three other boys about their age, in the afternoon went to Lake Come to skate. They were joined on the way by another boy, not a mate of theirs.—The ice seemed firm along the lake shore, where the water is thought shallow out some rods. It was about three o'clock, when three of the boys, passed in safety, over the spot, which proved to be only a thin shell over a springy place. When the Merriam boys, and he who had joined them last, ran on to it, they were all precipitated into the water. The Merriams were excellent swimmers, and with their comrades began to break ice by clinging to it. But this was a precarious hope. Their comrades fastened their tippets together, and threw one end so that Willie could reach it, and he was hauled out upon the ice. Just then came from his little brother, who had already sank twice, "Oh, boys, do not let me drown!" Willie gave one glance, and with the words, "I cannot let my brother perish," plunged in to rescue, and both sank to rise no more alive.—When help came, the other boy had hold of the ice, but was senseless. He was, however, brought to. The bodies of the brothers were readily found, clasped in each other's arms. What a noble sacrifice!

Olive Logan was riding on the Fort Wayne railroad when four men, sitting opposite, kept spitting on the floor. She looked cross-eyed at them for a while, but they did'nt seem to dry up much, when she got up, struck an attitude, and ordered the conductor, in thunder tones, to bring a mop or shovel, and clean out the pen. The spitters were so frightened they jumped out of windows and doors, and seemed pleased to have escaped with their lives. Olive sat down and turned her "Bright Side" toward the retreating foe, and whistled "Put me in my little, you know how it is yourself."—N. Y. Democrat.

From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

Chorus, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

The originator of this wonderful medicine, claims to have discovered and combined in harmony more of Nature's most sovereign medical properties than was ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and hundreds of the best physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch Pimple or Eruption. ROSADALIS.

THE GREAT AMERICAN health RESTORER; purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin diseases, Rheumatism, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens. Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesborough, Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; used one four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by F. P. GREEN, and Druggists generally.

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

R. B. BARGER,.....PROPRIETOR

W. W. BROWN,.....EDITOR

Terms: $2.00 Per Annum in Advance.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Wednesday Morning, March 15, 1871.

☞ A complete file of the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN may always be found at the offices of GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., Advertising Agents, 40 and 41 Park Row, New York, who are authorized to represent us in that city.

PENNSYLVANIA GOVERNORS.—Of the sixteen Pennsylvania Governors since 1790, five are now living, to wit: Wm. F. Johnston, in Armstrong county; William Bigler, in Clearfield county; James Pollock, in Philadelphia; Andrew G. Curtin (now Minister to Russia), of Centre county, and John W. Geary, present Governor, in Harrisburg.

PAY UP.

Many of our readers have paid in advance. We have nothing but thanks for them, and they need not read this article any farther. It is not intended for them. But we have a large number of subscribers who have not paid last years subscription. Now friends this is not the way to support a paper. We have to pay cash for everything we purchase. Paper, ink, labor, all are cash. We know that we have not a subscriber on our books, who is not abundantly able to pay for the REPUBLICAN.

It is not because you are not able, but because you forget or neglect it. If you continue this course much longer it will cost you something extra. Remember our rates are $2,00 in advance; $2,50 if not paid within six months, and $3,00 if not paid till the end of the year.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

It appears from the last Watchman, that "Joe," the assistant Editor, paid a visit to Tyrone to hear "the man of Sin" lecture, and gives his readers the benefit of that visit, and says "we spent the day with our geniat and erratic friend, W. H. H. Brainerd," to whom he is "indebted for the curiosities seen," and then continues, "At the Herald office we met Brainerd's partner Capt. Jones, a most agreeable companion and one of the best printers to be found in the Commonwealth. The Captain is a moral gentleman. He neither drinks, chews, smokes nor swears, and is universally respected by all parties and people in Tyrone."

Now if William Henry Harrison Brainerd treated Joe in the handsome manner he says he did, the above encomium upon Jones is the "unkindest cut of all" on Brainerd. The inference is too plain and cannot be misunderstood, that Brainerd drinks, chews, smokes and swears, and is not a "moral gentleman" nor "universally respected by all parties and people in Tyrone." Is this not ingratitude in Joe, by his own showing? Why write such stuff against a brother Good Templar?

SENATOR SUMNER—HIS REMOVAL FROM THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF FOREIGN RELATIONS.

The Philadelphia Press of the 10th inst, publishes the following excellent article upon the removal of Senator Sumner from the Chairmanship of Foreign Relations. It is brief it is true; but it is full of caution to, and good wholesome advice for the great Republican party. We hope our leaders will profit by it:

However considered, the removal of Senator Sumner from the chairmanship of Foreign Relations is something more than a blunder. It will certainly not help the San Domingo scheme. Many Republicans, the Press among them, have favored that project, but have not thought less of Mr. Sumner for opposing it. That was his right as an independent statesman, and to punish him for it is a deliberate insult to the hundreds of thousands who honor his character and his career.

The last exhibition of this sort was the removal of Stephen A. Douglas from the Committee on Territories by the Democracy, because he revolted against the attempt to force slavery into Kansas. We all know how that resulted. It divided and finally destroyed that great party. It was resented by honest Democrats as unprovoked intolerance, and it gave Douglas a stronger hold than ever upon their affections.

How much does this act of a Republican caucus differ from that of the infatuated Democratic leaders? If in anything, we reply, it differs in the fact that the attack in this case is upon a statesman who has done more for humanity, in its largest sense, than any leader of his age and time; who has borne himself for over twenty years among the first and stanchest of all the champions of freedom; who has kept his hands pure and his soul white; who has never sought place for himself, and has maintained the even tenor of his life without fear or faltering. Can the Republican party afford to do this thing? Can a Republican caucus which allowed men to sit in its councils who voted to acquit Andrew Johnson, justify this wrath upon Charles Sumner for exercising his privilege in differing with the Administration on one measure? San Domingo can never be made a test in the Republican party, and ought not to be. But if it is determined to make it so the poorest way to begin the wretched business is to strike down the great man who led the Republican hosts when thousands who proudly enroll themselves among them were either Democrats or doubters. The managers in this very bad proceeding will be even more outraged by this sacrifice than the Democracy in the case of Douglas. We hope the rash act will be reconsidered at once. Republicans cannot afford to copy or commend the miserable proscriptions of the Buchanan Administration.

PHILADELPHIA, March 11, 1871.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

After a pleasant ride, via Milesburg and Tyrone, halting long enough at the latter place to interview the editor of the Herald, whom we found in a convalescent state, recovering from the shock received at the Huntingdon Conference, and who concedes that Nasby was a success, as he found the man of sin in Tyrone, W. H. H. B., being present at roll call. We arrived here safely this morning at 7, a. m. Without any hesitancy we placed ourselves in the custody of the very gentlemanly proprietors, of the St. Cloud Hotel, on Arch street, above Seventh, the Messrs. G. W. Mullen & Bro., who have for a long time been identified with the Cresson Housee, which they also retain charge of. The St. Cloud Hotel, formerly the Ashland House, has recently been very much enlarged, and undergone a series of repairs which has converted it into an entirely new house, and was opened on Feb. 15th, 1871, by the above named gentlemen. It is very elegantly and handsomely furnished with heavy walnut furniture, and carpeted throughout with the best English Brussels carpet; and is heated with hot steam pipes, passing through every room.

The beds, well they are of the best quality of Spiral Spring, and the sight of them makes one wish night would come twice a day. A very good idea of the elegance of the furniture, may be ascertained from the fact that it cost the sum of $80, 000 dollars. The St. Cloud will comfortably accommodate two hundred and fifty guests, and is equal to any house in the city, not excepting the Continental. It is the place for Pennsylvanians, as well as all others to put up at. The city is beginning to put on the new life of spring trade, and prospects are good for a fair trade. More anon.

VOX.

MUSICAL.—"Among the thousand and one Pianos offered to the public, we scarcely know any instrument so fully uniting all the desirable qualities sought for as the Knabe Piano. It is a matter of some difficulty and perplexity to inexperienced persons to select a good instrument of any capacity. We too often rely upon the judgment of friends in the selection of a Piano, and are thus frequently disappointed. The only sure way, in our opinion, is to go to the best maker. For this reason, we recommend to our readers to purchase Pianos of Wm. Knabe & Co's manufacture. This will relieve them the vexatious necessity of wasting time in a long search. The reputation of the Knabe Pianos is an infallible guaranty of excellence. In the houses of the most accomplished and wealthy citizens, and in our best seminaries and colleges, these magnificent instruments may be found. Nor is this any wonder, for, in purity, depth and constancy of tone, they are unsurpassed.—Their gradation of scale is so exquisitely, and, at the same time, comprehensively attuned, that they are capable of expressing every emotion of the human heart and soul. Their tone is exquisitely pure and unique, and so even, sweet and sympathetic that it inspires all who listen to it, while at the same time the action is perfectly free, and the keys resound to the touch with such sensitiveness and intelligence, so to speak, as to make one almost think that the mind of the manufacturer lingers in his work.

11-1t.

THE condition of the South is alarming. The Ku Klux are in full feather, and are carrying out their barbarities with a high hand and with entire immunity from punishment for their crimes. If they are permitted to continue their outrages, it will not be long before every Union man of the South will be driven out of that section. We saw the startling statement, a few days since, that there is a record of over five thousand murders committed by these desperadoes since the termination of the war; and they have doubtless murdered many a poor soul whose taking off has never come before the public. The only government fit for such people is one of uncompromising power, that will lay the strong arm upon them and compel them to behave themselves under penalty of extinction.

OFFICER SEEKERS.—The best places we read of for office-hunters must be Portage township, Cameron county, with 17 taxables; Highland township, Elk county, with 16; Howe township, Forest county, with 16, as every taxable can be provided with an office, and some with two, as each district is entitled to

6 school directors,
5 election officers,
2 justices of the peace,
1 constable,
1 collector,
2 supervisors,
1 assessor,
1 township clerk,

19 and run their chances for state and county offices besides.

Scranton claims to have the champion Newfoundland dog. It is two years and a half old, six feet two inches in length, thirty-five inches high, weighs 200 pounds, and is valued at $125. It is estimated that he would make a quarter of a mule of first class sausage.

THE WILD WINDS.

AN UNPRECEDENTED BLOW VISITS ST. LOUIS—SOMETHING BEYOND THE MEMORY OF THE "OLDEST INHABITANT"—TRAINS OF CARS BLOWN FROM THE TRACK.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—A terrific hurricane passed over a portion of East St. Louis, between 2 and 3 o'clock this afternoon. The wind first came from the southeast, accompanied by a brisk shower, but suddenly veered to the southwest, and came with a fury and force never before witnessed in this latitude.

It first struck the elevator on the bank of the river, and took part of its roof off, and passing in a due northeast direction, it totally demolished the freight depot of the St. Louis and Vandalia Railroad, eight hundred feet long by one hundred feet high; the freight and passenger depot of the Northeastern Railroad; two freight depots, a portion of the passenger depot and ticket office, and the large round house of the Chicago and Alton Railroad; the car-house, scale-office, freight office, and part of one of the freight depots of the Ohio and Mississippi road; the freight and passenger depots of the Toledo and Wabash Railroad; and a number of dwelling houses in the vicinity.

A portion of the roof of the Terre Haute and Indianapolis depot was blown off, and nearly all the derricks and other appliances used in the construction of the bridge were torn from their places and blown into the river. Everything, in fact, within in a space of from two to three hundred yards wide was actually torn to pieces.

A train of cars, including a 30 ton locomotive, was blown from the track and hurled forty feet into a slough. Another train of thirteen cars, laden with grain, was overturned and smashed, and one car was blown into the river.

A train coming in on the Terre Haute Road, when at Brooklyn, three miles northeast of East St. Louis, was blown from the track, and about forty cars standing on a side track of the Toledo and Wabash and Chicago and Alton road, about nine miles out, were overthrown.

The round-house of the Chicago and Alton road, after being blown down, caught fire from an engine inside, and was burned. The engineer of the locomotive was burned to death.

The number of killed and wounded cannot be stated to night, but seven are known to be killed and between thirty and forty seriously wounded, some dangerously, and a good many more slightly injured. It is believed a number of persons are still buried beneath the ruins.

The scene is frightful. Houses are to fragments, others are unroofed or upset, and still others are carried bodily from their foundations.

Scarcely a building or tree, or anything else within the track of the storm, is standing. The wreck and ruin is complete.

The pecuniary losses are estimated as follows: The Chicago and Alton Railroad, $500,000; Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, $200,000; Toledo and Wabash Railroad, $125,000; St. Louis and Vandalia Railroad, $50,000; Southeastern Railroad, $30,000; Wigging Ferry Company, $250,000. The steamboats lying on the eastern side of the river are seriously damaged.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE.—The April number of this superb family magazine is already issued, and contains a list of contents such as will please every one, old and young. "The Rivals on the Deep" which will be found in the April number, is, alone, worth more than the price of the whole magazine. It is the best story that has been written this year. But all the tales in "Ballou's Magazine are good and we can assure our readers, they will not be sorry if they purchase the magazine and read them. It is a most excellent magazine. Every number is good.

MCDONALD'S "Illustrated Annual" for 1871, has been received. It is of large quarto size, each page illustrated with elegant engravings, and contains original and select articles of great merit.—Among the contributors are Grace Greenwood, Harriet Beecher Stowe, Jos P. Thompson, D. D., Frederick W. Cozzens, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, John B. Gough, etc. A beautiful song, "Come Home, Father," words and music by Henry Work. New York: R. H. McDonald, 32 and 34 Commerce St. For sale by all News Agents. Price 10 cents.

INDIGESTION.—Very many persons are constant sufferers from indigestion, and consequent debility; particularly those of sedentary habits, and delicate females. Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" are an all sufficient antidote to their ailings and debility. Give them a judicial trial. Sold by Druggists.

From one of the counties of Pennsylvania, Potter, waters flow into the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Chesapeake Bay, and the Gulf of Mexico; and from nearly all those that border on the great Alleghany mountains, considerable streams fall into the two latter.

The distance from Danville to Lewistown is fifteen miles; from Lewisburg to Tyrone, eighty-five, and the Branch to Bellefonte, ten and seventy-nine hundredths, making the total one hundred and ten and seventy-nine hundredths miles.

On Saturday night last, the barn of John M. Rhodes, near Martinsburg, was burned to the ground, together with nine horses, a lot of cattle and sheep, and all the crops of grain and hay. Loss about $5,000—insurance, $1,500.

If you want your watch to be put in A No. 1, flip-top order, you must take it to Frank P. Blair, No. 1, Bush House.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal on nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skilfull artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's pattent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, and used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust, and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:

American Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.
Ams. Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.
American Watch Co., Crescent St., Waltham, Mass.
Appleton Tracy & Co., Waltham, Mass.
American Watch Co., Adams St., Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett, Waltham Mass.
Wm. Ellery, Waltham, Mass.
Home Watch Co., Boston, Mass.

Examine the spelling of these names carefully before buying. Any variation even of a single letter, indicates a counterfeit.

For sale by all leading jewelers. No watches retailed by the Company.

An illustrated history of watch-making, containing much useful information to watch-wearers sent to any address on application.

Medical.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher in their estimation, as it has become better known, its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most efficient remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to cold and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgements we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either residence in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the Ague Cure daily.

For Liver Complaints, arise from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Perpared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

PRICE, $1,00 PER BOTTLE.

Drunkenness and its Curses—No. 10.

BY REFORMATION.

That awful name, what a sound it conveys to the human ear, and what a pang of anguish does it send into the heart. Weeping father, weeping mother, weeping sisters, weeping brothers, weeping friends, weeping relatives, and weeping children, whence come these floods of tears whence comes these moanings, and all this horror? Oh! from drunkenness, yea from this hell-bound demon. The destroyer of all our peace, and our comfort, our homes made desolate, our children sent into the street to beg or starve. And thus continues these curses from day to day, in our very midst. And notwithstanding all these cries of distress, notwithstanding we see daily on our streets, children ragged, filthy, debased and cast out on the broad road to destruction, we look upon this picture as a common place necessity, and one that is considered a necessary evil, and out of our power to stay its ravages. Great God, have we come to this conclusion? Are we going to let this demon of destruction continue to send the families of our friends into eternal misery, and make no effort to stay this monster of death? Friends of the cause of God and humanity this will not answer. We must clear our skirts of this blood. You are told where this monster lives, and whence he receives his supplies of the lava of death. You are no longer ignorant of these facts. Will you longer claim membership in the house of God and remain idle spectators? Here silence is crime, and inactivity is treason. Wo to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil. Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul. For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it. Wo unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness. Thou art filled with shame for glory, drink thou also, &c. The cup of the Lord's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory. Habakkuk, 2nd chap., 9, 10, 11, 15, 16 verses, God's judgment against, Judah for divers sins. And have we not a Judah in our midst to day? Most assuredly we have. And a powerful one it is. And where do we find its mighty men, but in nests on high. Teaching the doctrines of men, instead of advancing the cause of their Savior.

What does the text say? Wo unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that puttest thy bottle to him &c. Is not the word of God the same to day, as when this declaration was written? This judgement passes upon all guilty of like offenses, under whatever name they may be found, time does not change God's decrees. For are we not plainly told that a day with God is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as a day. The heavens and earth may pass away, but my word saith the Lord will not pass away. Consequently the bottle of the present day has the same curse resting upon it, that there was in the days of Habakkuk. But man has since then made some changes. And the bottle is put to our neighbor with a new suit of clothes upon it. But this suit of clothes passed through a number of workmen's hands before the bottle could be properly clad. Well we will not enumerate at present the number of different workmen engaged upon this suit before it come to us. Now in each and every county of our country we have a place to put the finishing touch upon this suit of clothes, before the bottle can put it on. But before going into the finishing room, however, the names of twelve men are necessary to prove its workmanship, before being handed to the inspectors. Well they declare it well made, and out comes the bottle clothed in all its glory, and is now ready for the work of destruction among us. The bottle is now clothed by those whose nests are on high. Reader you know the name of this finishing room, and you know the price of goods from which this suit was made. But have all these modifications changed the decree of God? No certainly not. Have not these workers of the present day "Judah" the same right to expect the condemnation of God to rest upon them as in the days of Habakkuk? Why it would be charging God with falsehood to say otherwise. Is it not high time this great enemy of human souls be duly set forth in his naked deformity, and fully divested of his outer garments, that he may be clearly seen by all.

Too long has he been shielded by those whose nests are on high, and too long has his advocates been held in respectibility, while death through thism onster intemperance has been sown broadcast among us. And notwithstanding all this, do we stand idle, and look with indifference upon the workings of the intoxicating cup, sanctioned by a law, called and known among us as the license law? To advocate and sustain such a law in the sight of God is simply to hold a murderer in respectability. And all who do this must know and do know, that they are responsible to God for the misery, death and destruction of the souls of their fellow men. Consult conscience before you offer a rebut to this charge. Examine the authority upon which you are doing this. And then let your better judgment decide, before your own soul's welfare is contaminated with the blood of thousands. Conscience is God within us. And whosoever speaketh a word against the son of man, it shall be forgiven him, but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Either make the tree good, and his fruit good, or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt, for the tree is known by his fruit. St. Matt, XII c. 32, 33d v.

Now where does the makers, founders, advocates, and executors of this (tree) the license law stand? Can you claim the fruit of this tree to be good? No you dare not. Look upon that wife and her children weeping over the death of a husband and father, who has just filled a drunkard's grave. This is the fruit of your tree, eternal destruction of soul and body. And yet the advocates of this demon of misery on earth, and in the end everlasting death of human souls, are held up in respectability by those professing to be the followers of Christ. These facts are beyond a shadow of contradiction. The proof is before your eyes every hour of the day, and your conscience forbids a denial. Oh generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things, for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh? St. Matt. XII, 34th v. Oh! church where are thy fruits? Will you longer stand idle to the cry of suffering humanity?

THE obsequies of Edward H. Simmons, the heroic engineer of the fatal Pacific express, who went to his death at New Hamburg rather than desert his post, were very solemn and impressive. The body lay in a handsome casket, at his late residence on Thirty-second street, and around it were gathered his intimate friends, and many of his comrades on the road. He had parted with them on the night of his death so full of life and spirits, and as he mounted the engine that carried him to his death, had sent back—so little did they think for the last time—his usual "bye-bye, boys;" and now to see him lying there, and remembering this, was it strange that they—so little accustomed to the shedding of tears—should weep? "Good-bye, 'Doc,'" said one sturdy engineer, "you are gone, but the boy's 'll take care of your family; they shan't suffer." The last farewells of his loving wife, and his father, brother and sister were agonizing. On arriving at the church, the casket was borne in by eight of his late associates, and after the ceremony, was removed to the 30th street depot, where a special train was in waiting to convey the cortege to Trinity Cemetery, on 152d street. The train consisted of the engine, baggage-car, and five coaches. The body was placed in the baggage-car; the relatives occupied the first coach, and the others were filled with the accompanying friends. The engine was draped with white and black crape, the bell muffled, and upon the sand box were the letters E. H. S. in white, on a black-ground. Superintendent Toucey and Master-Mechanic Buchanan accompanied the train, as also did many engineers and firemen from other roads.

The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion of Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.
Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

Prominent Business Houses of Buffalo.

WHO THE BUSINESS IS DONE BY.

[From a Buffalo Exchange.[

One can scarcely pick up a paper anywhere in the country without discovering in it an advertisement of two standard remedies which are in universal demand, and which are sold by every first class druggist in the land. These remedies, which in the short space of two or three years have grown so universally popular, are Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the latter being an alterative extract, and found to be a most excellent help in restoring disordered constitutions and putting Nature "on her pins again." Upon the excellent virtues which these remedies are known to possess we do not propose to descant, but will confine ourselves to brief details of the business, for which Buffalo is the grand central headquarters. Many of the advertised cures for the ills of Nature have no existing headquarters except in the newspapers or in some contracted office, sufficient barely to receive and open orders in.

Not with the dispensary and laboratory where are compounded the remedies above mentioned. The large four story brick building at No. 133 Seneca street, is devoted exclusively to the business connected with the sale of the two household blessings above alluded to, and if we are not mistaken still more commodious quarters will soon be demanded. Let the reader take a walk through the place with us, and join us in the expression of surprise at the extent to which an establishment of but three years existence has grown.

The business office is on the ground floor entrance from the street, and here general matters are handled by a competent force.

The packing room is in the rear, and there all stamping, packing, labeling and shipping is done, being packed in different conveniently sized boxes of dozen or gross, as the case may be, while the catarrh remedy is also in the form of a powder, to which pure water is afterward to be added, packed in tin foil for shipment by mail.

In the basement the bottling is done, and more rapidly than the uninitiated would suppose it could be done, by means of what is known as the "Automatic Bottle Filler," so contrived that a half dozen bottles can be filled at one time, and by the means of a 'float' to only the capacity of a bottle; an expert can fill from forty to fifty bottles per minute by the aid of this contrivance. The bottles are made purposely for this establishment, and the title is blown on the glass. A steam engine pumps the water for washing the bottles, and also drives a burr mill stone for the purpose of grinding the herbs and extracts used. The boilers furnish the steam for heating the building.

Upon the second floor, entrance by a stairway which leads from the street, are Dr. Pierce's sanctum and rooms for consultation; for, be it known, that he is a regular practicing physician, and has many patients who come to him for treatment of chronic diseases. His patients are not all from Buffalo alone either, for there is scarcely a day that he does not receive calls from people living in remote parts of the country, who have heard of his success in the practice of medicine.

The treatment of diseases has naturally become an important feature, and outside of catarrh and the ailments which the two remedies directly assail, all chronic diseases are treated at the dispensary. Patients coming from abroad are furnished with good boarding places, while they are under treatment. Specific medicines or prescriptions are sent by mail, and persons who are too far away to take a trip to Buffalo, receive attention and treatment upon making their cases known by mail. In this department the services of two physicians of established repute are employed in the cure of chronic diseases. It cannot, therefore, be said that the remedies which are issued are not prepared, compounded or devised under the supervision of doctors of medicines, and not simply putters up of saleable packages. Dr. Pierce is the inventor of the Golden Medical Discovery and the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

The upper floors are used for storeroom and for drying and preparing the medicated roots, herbs, &c., used in compounding the remedies, and it is unnecessary to say that although large quantities are used, the utmost nicety and uniformity is manifested in the mixture of the remedial agents.

Dr. Pierce is one of the shrewdest as well as one of the most extensive advertisers in the country, and has learned by experience that the more he makes known what he has to offer the greater will be the demand. He now advertises in over 2,000 papers in the United States alone, and liberally at that. He avails himself of all honorable means of getting his goods before the public, and shows his knowledge of the power of the press by patronizing it so extensively. He is preparing for still greater advances in this direction, and, besides, issues a very comprehensive treaties upon the causes of and remedies for catarrh and other maladies, showing a most intimate acquaintance with the nature, conditions and results of diseases, which could be obtained only by deep research and the experiences of an extensive practice. In this room a Gordon press is in constant use. His advertising bills for the past year will amount to $65,000 and he proposes in the ensuing year to double that amount.

As a natural result of the widespread advertising to which we have alluded the business is constantly increasing, and not only do the remedies have great sale in the more thickly populated parts of the country, but they are distributed all along the Pacific coast and in the newly organized States. California alone contributes many thousand dollars' worth of trade. As we have before stated the business is in its infancy, and yet there is no specific remedy which in the short time of three years has come into such increasing demand. With the fact that the quality of the articles is such that one sale brings three additional ones or more, to what extent will not the trade expand in the future? The most perfect system is manifested in the business and all of the numerous employees are familiar with their own duties and perform them to the letter.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, under whose supervision this important enterprise has grown to such magnitude, is probably the youngest of the great advertisers of the day, and has not yet seen his fortieth year, although his experience as a physician dates from the commencement of his business life. His manners are extremely affable and he has that happy faculty of making every one feel at ease, who approaches him. He is a graduate of the Cincinnati Medical College, and has an honorary degree acquired at the Philadelphia College, having served in the School of Medicine and Surgery with distinguished credit. His means were quite limited when he became the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy but so sanguine was he that its effectiveness would, if properly set before the public, bring it into general use, that he embarked in it, afterwards adding to his business the manufacture and sale of his Golden Medical Discovery, a good companion remedy for the other. All of his extensive advertising has been paid for by the business, which truly looks as if were leading on to fortune.

PROFITS OF SMALL FRUITS.—Wm. Parry, of New Jersey, who has grown small fruits exclusively for many years past, and who knows how to cultivate as well and market as skillfully as any man, stated at the meeting of the Pa. Fruit Growers' Society, that his average returns per acre for the past ten years were $284. Blackberries had yielded in net profit for the same number of years at the rate of $200 per acre—the only three sorts worth cultivating being the Wilson, Dorchester and Kittaninny. The average price has been sixteen cents per quart. The three most profitable sorts of strawberries at present are Charles Downing, Downer's Prolific and Kentucky; next best, Green Prolific, Agriculturist and Boyden's No. 30. The cranberry crop of New Jersey is estimated at 50,000 barrels annually, worth $1,000,000—20,000 acres being now under cultivation.—Country Gentleman.

CURE FOR COLDS.—We do not know the origin of the following, but it may be found useful: "Common sweet cider, boiled down to one half, makes a most excellent sirup for coughs and colds for children—is pleasant to the taste, and will keep throughout a year in a cool cellar. In recovering from an illness, the system has a craving for some pleasant acid drink. This is found in cider which is placed to the fire as soon as made, and allowed to come to a boil, then cooled, put in casks, and keep in a cool cellar. Treated thus, it remains for months as good as the day it was made. We once saved the life of an infant, which being inadvertantly drugged with laudanum, and was fast sinking into the sleep which has no waking, by giving it strong coffee, cleared with the white of an egg, a teaspoonful every five minutes until it ceased to seem drowsy."

HOME NEWS.

FRESH COW.—Abraham Valentine offers for sale, a first rate milch cow. The calf of which is about three weeks old, he will retain.

WANTED.—A boy, between the age of 12 and 15 years, smart and active.—pply at the Model Book Store, opposite the Bush House.

TWINS.—John H. Orvis has an Alderney cow which is the mother of twin calves. The calves are about three weeks old, are beautiful, and doing well.

CHANGE.—Jacob D. Miller has sold out his Book store, in the Post Office building, to John I. Rankin, the enterprising book merchant of High Street.

LARGE MEMBERSHIP.—The Sacrament of the Lords Supper was administered on Sundy evening, the 5th inst., in the M. E. Church, at Philipsburg, to one hundred and seventy persons.

MILESBURG.—This enterprising town is determined to rival Bellefonte. Her citizens have all made up their minds to aid in the laudable purpose. What has become of our reporter? Send in the local news.

OUR STREETS.—Our enterprising street Commissioner, Capt. M. Runkle, is at work every day cleaning up our streets. He is determined that the streets, at least, shall be kept clean. Our Borough Fathers could not have made a better appointment.

KILLED.—The Philipsburg Journal says: A miner named Shannon, was killed by a fall of coal in the colliery of the Decatur Coal Co., on Wednesday, the 8th inst. His body was conveyed to Osceola, on Thursday, and buried in the Catholic cemetery.

LETTERS.—It has been decided that a letter sealed by the humblest person in the land cannot be opened by any one through whose hands it passes, but must be held sacred, and not even the Postmaster General has the right to break the seal. Some people we know of don't think so.

THE Clinton Republican, one of the soundest and spiciest Republican papers in the State, came to us last week, enlarged to 36 columns and greatly improved. It is now one of our neatest and best exchanges, always welcome, and perused with interest. May success attend its efforts, both politically and financially.

BANQUET.—Mr. Munson one of Philipsburg's enterprising citizens, upon retiring from the lumber manufacturing business, gave at the House of Capt. Ganoe, on the 28th ult., a magnificent banquet to all his old employees, as well as to those of the new firm. Mr. Munson's head is level. Meek had better keep a sharp lookout next fall.

GIVE US NOTICE.—Subscribers to the Bellefonte REPUBLICAN, who intend to change their place of residence, should not fail to notify us where they wish their papers sent after April 1st. It will save us trouble if you will give us the name of your present Post Office, as well as the name of the office to which you desire the paper sent in future.

GOOD SHOT.—We are indebted to W. L. Gordon, Esq., for the following:—James Heverly, of Howard, shot two pike in the Bald Eagle Creek, at that place, on Saturday last, at one shot, one of which measured 25¼ inches in length, and weighed 4½ pounds; the other measured 18½ inches and weighed 2¼ pounds. That is what we call a good shot.

DEATH.—The Philipsburg Journal, of the 11th inst., says a gloom was cast over this community by a dispatch from Columbia, S. C., on Thursday, announcing the death of Mrs. G. H. Zeigler. The young and cherished wife and mother, just in the bloom of tender womanhood, beloved and respected, has passed from this life. Her remains will reach here on Sunday for interment.

REPORT of Marsh Creek School for the month ending, February 27th, 1871. J. L. Butler, teacher. Whole number in attendance, 71; per cent of attendance for month, 88; Spelling, 71; Reading, 58; Writing, 58; Mental Arithmetic, 71; Written Arithmetic, 40; Geography, 22; Grammar, 12; Composition, 40; Declamation, 31; U. S. History, 6; Vocal music and Scripture exercises, daily; Physiology tri-weekly, orally.

JOB WORK.—We are prepared to do all kinds of Job Work at the REPUBLICAN office. We are prepared to print the smallest cards, as well as the largest posters. We do our work well, and at the most reasonable rates. Our readers will remember that we obtained a Diploma from the County Fair last fall, for the best "Plain and Ornamental Printing." There is no establishment in the County can say as much. Bring, or send in your work. Give us a trial, and be convinced.

REVIVAL.—Philipsburg has been blessed this winter with religious revivals. The Methodist and the Presbyterian churches have both been greatly blessed and built up, and now the Journal says: The revival which has been going on in the Baptist church under the charge of Rev. J. M. Perry, closed on Wednesday evening, with the baptism of five persons, and the reception into fellowship with the church of thirty-six. On Sunday, one baptism took place at Cold Stream, and on the Friday preceeding, four persons were baptised in the church. The total number of baptisms is twenty-eight, the other persons connecting themselves with the church having joined by letter and reinstatement. The age of the converts varied between fifteen and sixty. A noticeable feature of the conversions was, that seven husbands and their wives embraced christianity. Twenty-five heads of families were among those who came from "darkness into light." The meeting on Wednesday evening was interesting and solemn, the baptism, sacrament and reception into the church rendering it thus. The congregation is endeavoring to secure Mr. Perry as their pastor, in recognition of his efforts during this meeting, and if proper arrangements can be made with his present charge, he will accept this call.

EVERYBODY uses the celebrated Diamond Spectacles. They are to be had only of Frank P. Blair.

ADVICE TO SOLDIERS.—One word of advice to soldiers—don't sell your discharge papers. The new law of Congress so modifies the requirements of the homestead act that a soldier or sailor who served ninety days or more during the rebellion, may deduct his term of enlistment from the five years' settlement hitherto required to perfect a title. For instance, if he served three years in the army or navy, he may acquire a full title to a quarter section of public land by a residence of two years. There is evidence that the sharks are preparing to wring dishonest fortunes out of the law. Soldiers' discharge papers are in active demand at the west. Either by falsely personating the rightful owner, or by selling back the papers at an advanced price, the Brokers hope to perpetrate a fraud on the government or the soldier, or both. The warning to all soldiers, sailors, or their widows and orphans, having posession of such papers, is to hold to them firmly. The law did not pass the Senate.

The Post Office Book Store is the place to get all you want in that line, and at reasonable rates.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We regret to announce, says the Harrisburg Telegraph, the sudden death last night, March 9th, at the Bolton House, of General James Potter, of Lewistown, Mifflin county, a gentleman well and favorably known to many of our citizens. He was found in his room between nine and ten o'clock last night in convulsions—and although medical aid was promptly called in, it was too late, and he expired shortly after. General Potter was at one time largely engaged in the iron business, was extensively known throughout the State, and was very generally esteemed for his social qualities and respected as a gentleman of intelligence and integrity. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. J. Vance Criswell of this city. His sudden demise in the prime of life will be regretted by all who knew him, and his more intimate friends will long mourn the loss of a companion and counsellor whose place cannot be supplied. The cause of his death was congestion of the brain.

DISSOLVED.—The partnership heretofore existing between P. McAffrey and John Pacini, in the Boot & Shoe business, and trading trading under the firm-name of P. McAffrey & Co., was dissolved by mutual consent on the 9th inst. The business will be continued by P. McAffrey, in the room in Brockerhoff building, formerly occupied by Mrs. Pattie Bear, and the books and accounts of the old firm are left with him for settlement and payment. Pat is an enterprising man and deserves success.

POTATOES.—We were presented last week with a peck of potatoes (Breeze's Prolific) by Joseph Baker, Esq., of Harris township. He claims that they are a very superior potato, and that the bugs do not injure the stocks. Mr. Baker is one of the most successful experimenters and potato growers in this country and his opinion should, therefore, have great weight with the farmers of this county. We can vouch for the fine flavor of Breeze's Prolific No. 2.

DENTISTRY.—Dr. James T. McIntire, son of Lawrence McIntire, of Pleasant Gap, having graduated in one of the best Dental Institutions in the country, is now prepared to bless the community with his superior knowledge as a Dentist. He will return from Philadelphia in about ten days with a first-class set of dental instruments, when, as we are informed, it is his intention to travel through this and adjoining counties, in the practice of his profession. We wish him success, because he deserves it.

COFFINS always on hand at the lowest prices, at O'BRYAN'S.

THE NEW ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.—The new church built in this place by the Episcopalian congregation, is now about finished and is, in every particular a very handsome church and a great credit to the congregation. For the following description of the two memorial windows we are indebted to a friend:

The chancel window in the new St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, in this Borough is placed to the memory of the late Hon. James T. Hale. The central figure is the Apostle and Evangelist St. John, in an attitude of wrapt devotion with a pen in his hand ready to record the mysteries of the Divine vision At his feet is the eagle which christian tradition assigns as the symbol of his gospel. In the foliation at the top is seen the dove—emblem of the Divine Spirit. The Greek letters below stand for Him who is described in the Apocalypse as Alpha and Omega—the beginning and the end. The sheaf of wheat and the cluster of grapes on either side are the Sacramental symbols of the Holy Eucharist. The body and blood of Christ which are the inward part or thing signified in the Sacrament, are represented by the Agnus Dei, and the Pelican feeding her young with blood from her own bosom—emblems too of the cerimonial type and the complete realization of the law of self-sacrifice, and self surrender to the will of God, in the life and death of our adorable Redeemer. Above the figure of St. John is a canopy of beautiful tracery work. Below is a shield with the inscription, "In Memoriam James T. Hale."

The window in the front gable is a memorial to the late Judge James Burnside. In the middle lancet is the figure of the great Hebrew law giver descending from the Mount with the two tables of the law; and underneath the text of Scripture, "The law was given by Moses—grace and truth came by Jesus Christ."

In the side lancets are the Font and the Chalice representing Baptism and the Supper of the Lord. Above these, we see the anchor of Hope and the Cross, with the words, "I know that my Redeemer liveth." In the middle lancet over the scene on Mount Sinai is the Crown of Glory, and in the Apex of the arch, the inwoven triangles symbolizing the mystery of the Holy Trinity. Across the lower border of the lancets is the inscription "In memory of James Burnside, born Feb. 22nd, 1809, died July 1st, 1859." These windows are as fine specimens of this class of work, as can be found in the State. In brilliancy of tint, harmony of coloring and exactness of delineation, they deserve the highest praise and add greatly to the beauty of the new church.

You can get Furniture at O'Brian's, opposite the Court House, cheaper than anywhere else.

HALFMOON.—Our reporter at Halfmoon, informs us that on the 1st inst., the citizens of that Township had the pleasure of witnessing the close of the graded school, or as they term it, "The Friends Select School," taught by Prof. Andrews. Mr. Andrews is a man of fine abilities and an able instructor. The school closed with an examination. In most of the common branches, the students performed their parts well, and with great credit both to themselves and their worthy teacher. The audience could easily see that the pupils had been under the instruction of a master mind.

On the evening of the 3d, they gave an exhibition in the meeting house. The people commenced pouring in about 6½ o'clock, and by a quarter past 7, the entertainment commenced with about 300 persons present. The programme was as follows: First, a paper which was edited by two of the students. It was excellent, indeed. Second, Dialogues and Declamation. The dialogues were good and well performed, interesting the audience highly, and doing great credit to the performers. The declamations were well selected, and were declaimed in a manner satisfactory to performers and people. It is stated by our reporter, that all went home well pleased, refreshed and proud of their children, Professor and school. The school will open its third session in April. We hope our friend S. D. E., will continue to send us the news from Halfmoon.

TOILET articles and Fancy Goods—a splendid assortment just received at Green's.

GRAPES.—D. C. Walter, Esq., Agent for the Juniata Valley Vineyard and Nursery, paid our sanctum a visit on Monday last. He sells sells the best and hardiest varieties of grapes, and we are glad to learn from him, that the people generally have determined to plant, at least, a sufficient number of vines to supply them with this excellent fruit.—Mr. Walter is a reliable man, and we believe will keep his word in every particular.

MR. SAMUEL FELTY, will sell at auction, at his ware-rooms, in Pine Grove, on March 24th, his entire stock of furniture. Those in want of first-class bargains had better take notice. Bills of sale are already printed, and the public can see what inducements are offered. 3-10-2t

For the REPUBLICAN.

UNIONVILLE, March 13th, 1871.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

It may not be amiss to inform you how we are progressing in this part of "Old Centre." In the first place I must speak of the revival now in progress under the anspices of our "Methodist brethren." They have had no preacher to aid them in the good cause, and their wonderful success is solely attributed to the zeal manifested, and hard work, both individually and collectively. We have no positive assurance of the number who have professed a change of heart, who have forsaken their evil ways with a determination to do right; but a great many have done so, and quite a number have connected themselves with the church. We trust this may be lasting, and that they may be given strength to hold out faithful until called from time to eternity.

A spirit of improvement seems to have taken possession of some of our citizens this spring, several new dwellings will be erected during the summer. Pavements are being laid and grounds improved generally. Mr. Buck, of this borough, purchased of the directors our old school house, and has added another story and it presents a very fine appearance and will be occupied in a few weeks by Mr. Martin as a dry goods house. It must be confessed that we have a weakness for ancient objects and when we looked upon this old institution of learning gradually losing its past identifications, we were carried back to our school-boy days and were forcibly reminded of the various trials we used to undergo within its walls, and of many pleasing associations.

But old buildings as well as other old institutions must give way to improvement. Thus it must soon be with ourselves. Our toil in this vineyard will soon cease, our forms will soon be bent, our appearance weather-beaten and dilapidated, we shall be carefully laid away and new and more pleasing forms will take our places, assume our responsibilities, and we trust, discharge the duties for the good of the human race, and honor to the God of our existence.

The public schools of the township will as a general thing, close in a few days. The directors will not allow Institute week to the teachers. We, as well as many others are under the impression that the directors are not acting as they should in this matter, and not as the law contemplates. If Institutes are to promote the cause of education, and especially for the good of free schools, we think it would be better to show more of a spirit of enterprise. The directors of this borough pay the teachers for the week.

OCCASIONAL.

O'BRYAN'S Furniture store always ahead.

GARDEN SEEDS.—The spring time is here. Soon, everybody will be busy making garden. It is lovely work. We like it very much. But there is nothing which we detest so much as bad or worthless garden seeds. In other years we have worked hard, and put our ground in the best of order, then bought our seed from New York and Philadelphia seed-houses, sowed them and waited for the result. In three weeks time we were pained to notice that few, if any, of these seeds germinated. We were compelled to buy more seeds, sow a second time to witness, perhaps, the same result, and be deprived of the benefits of our garden the whole summer.

People of Bellefonte and Centre county, if you wish to have a good garden, buy your seeds from C. W. Lambert, proprietor of the Sunny Side Plant and Seed Garden, Bellefonte. His seeds are fresh and good, raised by himself from the first fruit of 1870. They are warranted fresh and good, and true to name.—Better pay two prices for Mr. Lambert's seeds, than to obtain the seeds of the city men for nothing. We know what we are talking about and most willingly guarantee Mr. Lambert's Sunny Side garden seeds. Buy none but Lambert's.

THE BEST.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Burnside & Thomas. This is one of the oldest houses in town, is a good strong firm, and strongly asseverate at all times, that they keep nothing but the very best. Their Groceries, Boots and Shoes, Fruits, &c., are of the best quality, and their spices, we know, are pure and strong, and excelled by none in the market. Give them a trial.

THE ST. CLOUD.—This is the name given by the Messrs. Mullin, to the new and elegant hotel on Arch St., above 7th Philadelphia, of which they are proprietors. The St. Cloud is centrally located, and is strictly first class, all the comforts and conveniences for $3 a day—accomodations for 250 guests. Mullin Bro's are also proprietors of the popular Mountain House at Cresson, Pa.

THANKS.—Robert Ray, one of Harris townships intelligent and industrious farmers, brought us, a short time ago, two bushels of the "Red Utica" potato. They were most excellent and we think as a potato for winter use, the red Utica is hard to beat. Come again Robert.

GO TO the Book Store, opposite the Bush House, for bargains.

PUBLIC SALES.—W. L. Gordon, Esq., has disposed of his mill property, and we believe, of all his real estate in and about Howard Borough. On the 29th day of March, he will offer all his personal property for sale. We enumerate a few of the articles offered: 3 good mules, 3 milch cows, 25 head of good hogs, buggies, wagons, one sled, horse gears, saddles and bridles, plows, harrows, cultivators, 150 yards of carpet, together with a large assortment of household and kitchen furniture. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock of said day. Mr. Gordon is a very clever man—we hope he does not design moving to the West. He cannot be spared.

Maj. George D. DISSOLUTION.—We call the attention of our readers to the dissolution notice of Powers & McLain. The books and accounts of the firm have been left with John Powers, who will continue the Boot & Shoe business at the old stand, opposite the Bush House. The reason for the dissolution originated in the fact that Mr. McLain took charge of the Bush House. Mr. Powers offers superior inducements to his old customers and to the people of Centre county, to purchase their Boots, Shoes, &c., from him. John Powers is a good man, and will do just what he says.

ALL kinds of Furniture repaired at O'BRYAN'S.

DRUG STORE.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of F. P. Green, Druggist. Mr. Green is one the oldest and most experienced Druggists in this town. Although not an old man, he has been engaged in this business from early boyhood. It is his Profession, and he understands it in all its branches and in every particular.—His store, in the Bush House, is a perfect model. We described it in a former article. He is a clever man, and we wish him abundant success.

DIED.

In Morrisdale, Morris township, on Sunday, February 26th, 1871, Margaret Harrison, in her 48th year.

How blest is our mother, bereft
Of all that could burden her mind;
How easy the soul that has left
The wearisome body behind.
The mind is affected no more
With sickness or shaken with pain;
The war in the members is o'er,
And never shall vex her again.
